BENJAMIN F. BOYD HOUSE
(Late 19th Century)
Adelina
Private

This house is a one and a half story three bay frame structure resting on stone and brick piers. The house walls are sheathed with lapped boards which show extensive weathering. The main story windows have six over six pane sashes and at the upper story are six light windows. Architraves consist of four plain boards around the windows. There are only two openings at the upper half story, off-set toward the ends of the walls. There are no openings on the gable ends. There is a one story kitchen wing extending to the rear. The main entrance is located in the center bay of the front or east elevation.
